

As a licensed Amateur Radio Operator, I urge you to carefully review the test results from the ARRL testing of BPL. I desire the HF frequencies to remain free from this potential interference. In view of the events of August 14, 2003, I believe the power companies should get their own house in order before taking on additional services.

Thank you for your attention.

James D. Williams

N1GPB